

The Comix Cafe premieres an evening of magic, madness and mayhem with Sky Sands

Wednesday, December 13, was an auspicious day to be sure, (and surprisingly not a Friday, or Sky Sands would certainly have made use of that) as it saw the nimble comedian and slight of hand artist take center stage at the Caberet Royale in the Westin Aruba Resort, Spa and Casino. Sky Sands opened the club as the first in an exciting line up of internationally known comic talent that will be headlining at the new Comix Café.

The Comix Café is a popular comedy club franchise from upstate New York, and Aruba finally has some alternative adult entertainment that will fill in that late night after dinner void. Sky Sands followed in the heels of the Havana Review and Dinner Show, providing an excellent way to segue into some fun in the casino afterwards, assisted by the match play coupons that are received when purchasing tickets to the show.

Sky Sands is too outstanding a personality and entertainer to be considered a bridge between activities, and the show is well worth attending on its own merits. Beginning at 10:30 PM, he regaled the audience with awesome magic and his “stream of consciousness” form of humor. It is highly likely that one will never see the same show twice from Sky Sands, as everything catches his eye and becomes fodder for his “mile a moment” mind and mouth, both of which are non-stop. “Even I can only take myself in small doses,” he confessed to the crowd, though when he left the stage, it was obvious that the audience would have welcomed more of his sly, quirky humor.

Sky also proved himself to be very much a “man of the people,” personally welcoming audience members outside the Caberet Royale and chatting with them while he autographed flyers or used tickets as mementoes of the evening. A veteran of Cinemax, HBO, Comedy Central, and the Showtime networks, he still stays in touch with his audience on a very personal basis, often coming off the stage and amongst them to chat and include them in the act in the gentlest manner.

Sky Sands will be performing until January nightly Wednesday through Sunday with and an additional early show on Sunday evening at 8:30 PM. Tickets cost $29.95 per person and are available at the concierge desk of the Westin Resort or all De Palm Tours desks, as well as online at www.comixcafe.aruba.com. If you are looking for something different and fun, the Comix Café in the Westin Aruba Resort is the place to find it, but be sharp, the jokes are fast and furious, and you really have to pay attention, or you will miss them, or simply have to return another night!
